Greenbo Lake State Resort Park

Greenbo Lake State Resort Park holds the pristine beauty of the Kentucky hills that inspired author, poet and educator Jesse Stuart, a lifelong resident of the area. You will appreciate his vision as you visit the beautiful fieldstone lodge, spend a day on the serene waters of Greenbo Lake, study nature on the many miles of hiking trails or relax in front of the copper-hooded fireplace in the lodge lobby.

Jesse Stuart Lodge

Greenbo's spacious lodge features 36 rooms with private patios and balconies overlooking beautiful Greenbo Lake and the surrounding woodlands. The lodge gift shop features a large selection of Kentucky handcrafts and treasures as diverse and wonderful as the artisans who create them. Rooms are available by late afternoon, check out by noon, Eastern Time.

Camping

Enjoy the great outdoors April 1 - October 31 at the Greenbo Lake campground. The campground features 63 sites with utility hookups and 35 primitive sites. Two dump stations, two central service buildings with showers and rest rooms and a grocery store guarantee camping comfort and convenience. Check out by 1 pm. Make reservations at www.reserveamerica.com or call 888-459-7275
